

Post: Audiology, Speech and Language Pathologist

Roles and Responsibilities:

- To assess a condition, diagnose specifically what the issue is and develop a plan to treat the speech disorder,
- Help the children with a number of oral disorders such as trouble in swallowing, motor skills, speech issues and cognitive- linguistic conditions.
- Help the child to correct speech sounds.
- Follow through with therapy and other methods to ensure the child with special needs is getting the help they need.
- Use of technology to identify, test, diagnose, and manage disorders of human hearing, balance, and interpret test results of behavioural and objective measures
- Counsel patients about hearing health and the possible need for treatment/ management
- Assess the candidacy of persons with hearing loss for hearing aids and cochlear implants and provide fitting, programming, and audiologic rehabilitation to ensure the best possible outcomes
- Evaluate and manage children and adults with central auditory processing disorders
- Help people with these disorders better communicate and connect with the world around them.
- Working in close collaboration with other Therapists and Special Educators.

Requirements / Qualification:

BASLP/ MASLP

(Candidate with higher education or experience in the similar field will be preferred).