Message from President

Dear Friends

Challenges are an integral part of life. And we, at Khushboo, like to give a good fight.

A big loss, recently, was the passing away of one of our founder members, Sonali Savarkoor Ji. Everyone in the Khushboo family knows what it means to lose a gem like her.

But like they, say, life has to go on. Let us look at the ideas of compassion and love, which she stood for.

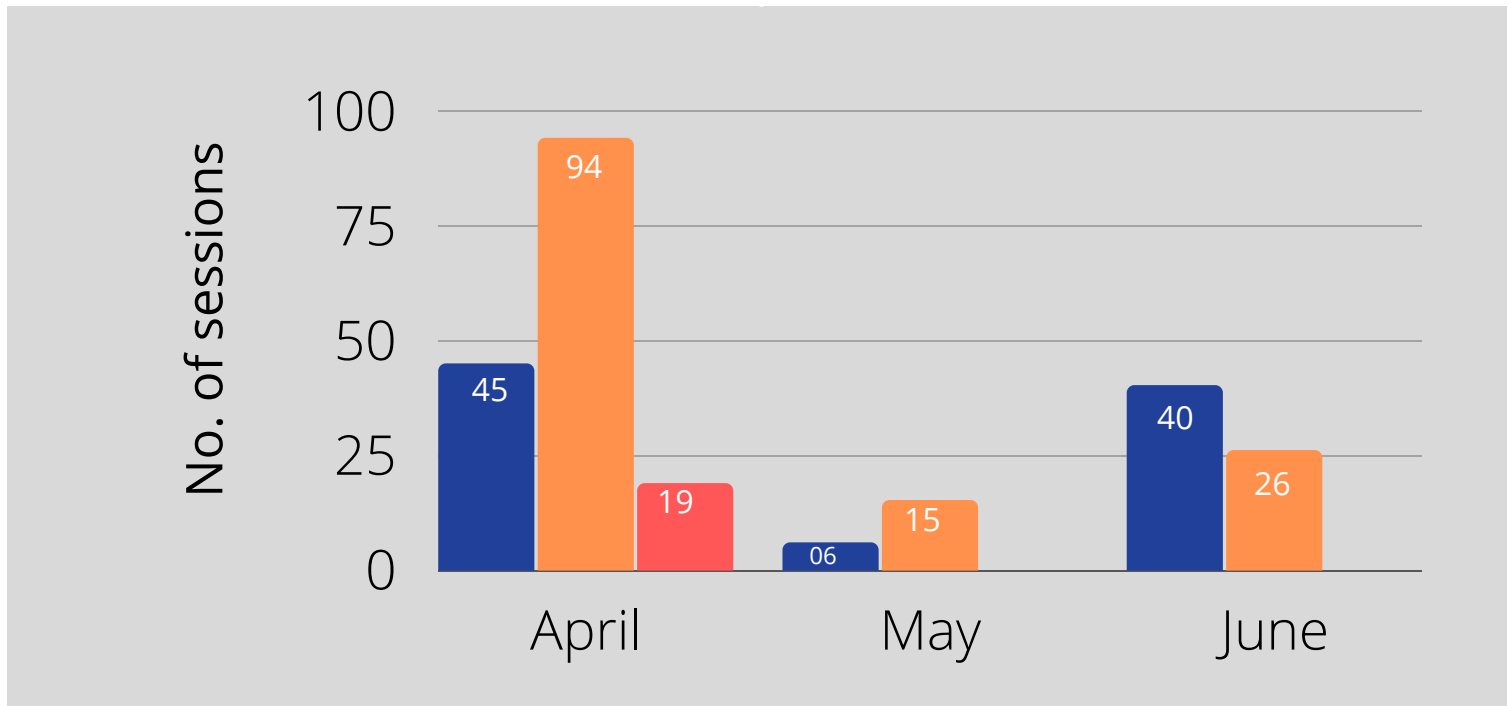

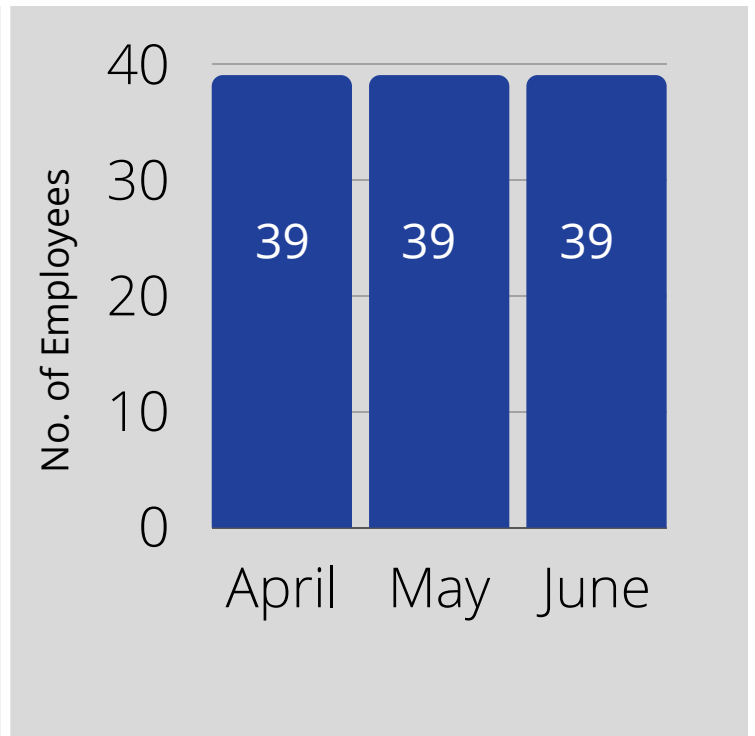

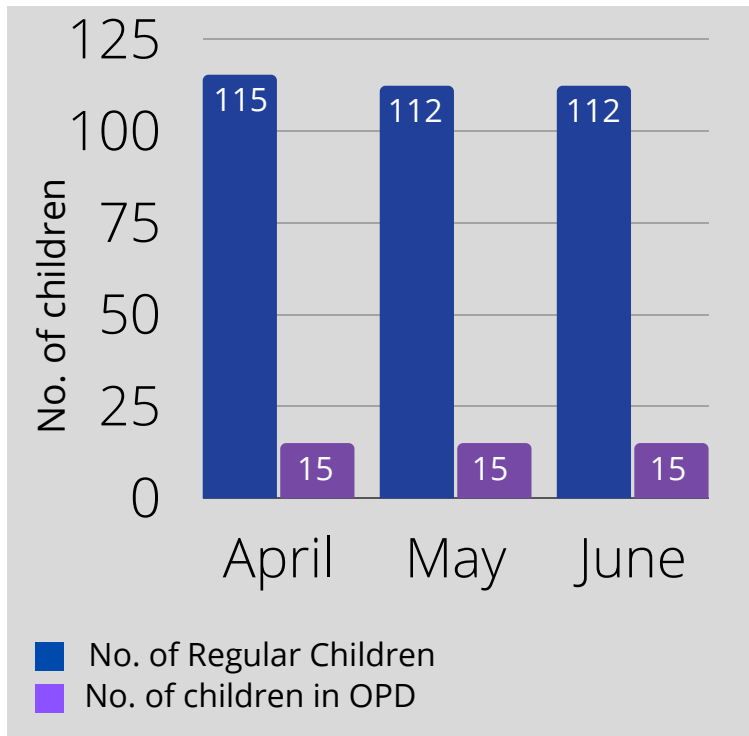

A quality, which our staff have definitely imbibed from the beginning. To see them work hard to make the online classes interesting and communicative is heartwarming, to say the least. They have in fact shown great resilience to make sure; our children don't fall behind, in their learning. Another challenge we have been trying to fight with our chins up is fundraising which has been affected because of the Pandemic. But yes there is some coming and hopefully, there will be more.

Because 'Every cloud has a silver lining' and we certainly like to look at the bright side of life!

Best Regards
Rakesh Jinsi
